TRAIL DESCRIPTION: All hikers head southward and climb up to "The Cobbles," a rocky perch which offers spectacular views of the Cheshire reservoir below, Mount Greylock to the north, and Ragged Mountain to the right. For 13km hikers, continue further south to Gore Pond, a tranquil spot to linger before retracing your path north. Be aware that rain and snow can make footing on the trail treacherous whereas summer heat and humidity can be oppressive. We recommend sturdy hiking boots and trekking poles or a hiking staff. There are no services on the trail so you must carry water and food. Pets are allowed on the Appalachian Trail, but must be kept on leashes six feet or shorter. Be aware of bears as they are often seen on the Appalachian Trail in MA. For updated information on trail conditions, please see www.appalachiantrail.org/home/explore-the-trail/trail-updates
