For GPS, use 250 North Great Road, Lincoln, MA

TIMES: Daily 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS:
The historic “Battle Road” walk travels part of the route Paul Revere and Samuel Prescott rode to warn the Colonists that “The Regulars are coming! The Regulars are coming!” Along this same route the colonial Minute Men chased the British back to Boston. Walkers pass the site of Paul Revere’s brief capture, historic homes, and Hartwell Tavern with furnishings typical of the Revolutionary era. All this is set in the beautiful fields and woods of the National Park.

RATING:
Both the 10km and 6km walk routes are on a crushed stone dust surface, and have an AVA rating of 1B, suitable for strollers but not wheelchairs.

AVA SPECIAL PROGRAMS:
Mayflower

AWARD:
This is an IVV Credit Only event.
