WALK TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS: Sandwich, the oldest town on Cape Cod, became the site of one of America's largest glass factories, which flourished during the 19th century. In 2013, the Massachusetts Cultural Council designated Sandwich as an official state cultural district. The route encompasses the Glass Museum showcasing early glass production, quaint shops, and unique bed and breakfast accommodations. Other sights include the Dexter Grist Mill, Hoxie House (ca. 1675) recognized as one of the oldest houses on Cape Cod, the birthplace of Thornton W. Burgess, historical landmarks, and Sandwich village shops. A boardwalk crossing a salt marsh provides a breathtaking view of Cape Cod Bay.

An optional 1km extension, to increase the 10km to an 11km distance, goes into the Sandwich Fish Hatchery, managed by MassWildlife, which raises a variety of trout to stock rivers, streams, lakes, and ponds.

Note: The 6km route requires a short drive (½ mile) to the trail start.

WALK RATING: Both walk routes are flat and mostly on paved surfaces with an AVA trail rating of 1B, suitable for strollers but not wheelchairs.

BIKE TRAIL DESCRIPTION: The entire route is on the paved Cape Cod Canal Recreation Trail, passing the Aptuxet Trading Post, a vertical plate railroad lift bridge, and the Bourne and Sagamore Bridges.

Note: The bike start requires a ½ mile drive to the start of the route at the Sandwich Recreation area. Helmets are mandatory.

BIKE RATING: The AVA trail rating is 1A.
